Subject:	Reporty Homeland Security <> Investors (Europe)

Dear Nicole,

How are you?

As discussed in our short meeting regarding Reporty's potential investors, and regarding to the feedback's that we are getting so far i think that we should stay focused on:

1. HLS Related funds (Style Ridge Capital in the U.S)

2. Super angels / Family offices - With added value

The traditional VC'S (Even Valar) are looking for traction, they are looking for revenues - they get used to companies that are in a different sectors were they can bring a real added value and get results for good or for bad very fast. This Round will take us to the traction which they are all so looking for.

As a result, and if I'm calculating the responses so far - the offers that we got was from Private people or companies/vc's that are focusing (Or at least understanding - those 3 letters B2G).

Would love to hear your thought, and hopefully to meet with relevant people in Europe (BTW, at this stage we are looking for a Lead investors – we will bring the rest).

Thanks ahead

A.E
